

Welcome Note from the Academic Vice President

Dr. Mona Suri
Academic Vice President

Dear students

On behalf of Royal University for Women I would like to welcome you all to another Academic year 2016-17, full of challenges and opportunities. We will work together to make this year a very successful one, both in academics and other co-curricular activities.

Last academic year has been a very eventful as RUW celebrated its 10th Anniversary with array of activities and achievements. RUW is among the first two universities in the Kingdom of Bahrain to be listed in NQF, we participated and successfully completed the National Accreditation project, RUW successfully organised a two day Conference on Women and Society in April 2016 and the students organised a very successful RUW Carnival. In addition there were many more successful events and activities where our students, staff and alumnae participated with enthusiasm and zeal.

RUW is working towards the achieving its mission of excellence, providing the knowledge and offering a teaching methodology that brings harmony between the well-established Middle Eastern values and the old value system of the West. We are proud of the fact that we provide a multicultural environment that promotes harmony and critical thinking. The students are coming from 14 different nationalities and faculty members from 17 countries. The faculty members are professionals with vast experience in their areas of specializations. All this will provide a very conducive and healthy teaching & learning environment to you at RUW.

As per our commitment to enhance the teaching and learning experience at RUW from AY 2013-14 the revised curriculum in all colleges for all academic programmes has been implemented. Please keep yourselves updated with the information which is available in the Programme handbooks and recently enhanced RUW website.

Academic advising is integral to your academic aspirations in the university life. Each one of you is assigned to a faculty member for academic advising. If you have any query about the registration, study plans, choice of courses, schedules, examination, or any other academic issue please fix an appointment with your advisor. They are there to help you with your academic plans and related issues. I encourage you to follow the study plans made by colleges, take courses in summer semester and meet your academic advisors on a regular basis.

As our endeavor to make RUW a smart Campus in near future we have Power Campus, e learning and blended learning. I would like to encourage the optimal use of Self Service by you all. Also, please use your RUW email ID as all communication from the university will be done on that email. Attendance is another issue I want to emphasize. We at RUW follow the Attendance policy and it is important for you all to attend your lectures and Studio classes regularly.

RUW is the first purpose build, Women University and we are providing you with an excellent infrastructure in terms of class room facilities, latest software and materials. Our mission is to enable you to make a mark for yourself and become competent and confident in your chosen fields through well-structured educational courses taught in an excellent learning environment and with the help international faculty and world class infrastructure.

I would like each one of you to be proud of your university. Wishing you an enjoyable and fruitful learning experience in this Academic Year.....

Dr. Mona Suri
Academic Vice President

Faculty Of The Month

Dr. Matthias Bode, Associate Professor,
College of Business & Financial Sciences

Dr. Matthias Bode

Dr. Matthias Bode earned his business economics diploma in Germany (University of Hannover). After that, he focused in his PhD work on the role of music in business communications. He has been teaching for more than 16 years Marketing, Brand Management, Consumer Research, Advertising and Consumer Culture Theory at universities in Germany (University of Hannover; University of Oldenburg; Bauhaus University Weimar), in the USA (University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign) and in Denmark (University of Southern Denmark). Since 2007 he worked at the University of Southern Denmark, first as a visiting lecturer, then as an Assistant Professor, and since 2010 as an Associate professor. He worked for the European Union project on sustainable households, developing and executing research in several European countries with multi-stakeholders on the consumer acceptance of future oriented solutions to make household activities like washing, cooling, heating, more sustainable. He has also experience as an advisor for audio branding consulting. In his academic research he asks the question how marketing is shaped and shaping the cultural, social and historical context it comes from and acts upon. He published a book together with Prof. Dr. Ursula Hansen on the history and development of marketing theory and practice in Germany. With the same co-author, he also published one of the first German academic contributions on the role of gender in marketing theory.

He has published widely in international journals and books, served as a member of program committees for international conferences, participated in numerous global conferences, and is serving as a reviewer for international conferences and journals. Dr. Matthias Bode has a strong personal and professional interest in sound and music. He follows the Austrian late-Romantic composer Gustav Mahler, who declared that the most important part of music is not to be found in the notes.

RUW Mission
To offer our students a rewarding and challenging multi-cultural learning environment that cultivates strong, well-rounded personalities, encourages leadership, and builds character, social consciousness and community. To realize our commitment to teaching, learning, research and service through the activities of all members of the University community.

RUW Vision
"The Royal University for Women will become the regional leader in academic excellence for women. Programmes and practices that meet international standards will prepare our graduates to become leaders who are engaged members of their society demonstrating initiative & life-long habits of learning and individual development. The RUW graduate will be creative, confident and forward thinking."

Royal University for Women and West Virginia University, USA : Ties Strengthened , Announcement of Degree and Strategic Partnership Consolidated

Royal University for Women hosted West Virginia University delegation led by Chairman of the Board of Governors, Mr. Thomas Flaherty and University President Dr. Gordon Gee from October 23 to 28, 2016 in a testament to the cooperation and strong strategic partnership between the two leading universities. The visit followed the approval of the renewal of the Memorandum of Understanding by the Higher Education Council in July 2016. The visit provided the perfect opportunity to highlight the progress and go forward with a number of key projects since the inception of partnership between both institutions. During the five day visit a series of agreed upon key projects was announced starting with a West Virginia University Bachelor of Civil Engineering at Royal University for Women to be launched in September 2017 in compliance with The Higher Education Council of Bahrain and the Higher Learning Commission in the United States. West Virginia University also announced its decision to choose Royal University for Women as a base and the Kingdom of Bahrain to launch its first Global Portal to serve the needs of West Virginia University in the Gulf region and the Middle East. WVU President Gordon Gee and Chairman of the Board of Governors, Mr. Thomas Flaherty also thanked the Royal University for Women, RUW management, faculty members and students for their financial contribution on the flooding relief effort following tragic flood in the State of West Virginia.

Royal University for Women and West Virginia University, USA : Ties Strengthened , Announcement of Degree and Strategic Partnership Consolidated

During the visit the delegation met with HH Shaikh Mohammed bin Mubarak Al Khalifa, Deputy Prime Minister. Esteemed Chairman of the RUW Board of Trustees, Mr. Fahad Al Zamil and Chairman of the WVU Board of Governors Mr. Tom Flaherty presented the intentions and commitment of cooperation from both sides to His Highness. His Highness welcomed the initiative of offering a Bachelor of Civil Engineering and other disciplines from a reputable American institution such as West Virginia University in collaboration with well recognized university such as Royal University for Women. As the delegation met with H.E. Shaikh Mohammed bin Khalifa bin Ahmed Al-Khalifa, Minister of Energy and his senior staff, the discussion touched upon the importance of engineering needs in the Kingdom of Bahrain and the region, and the necessity of linking the programme with the demands of the industry. During their visit at the Higher Education Council, H.E. Dr. Muna Al Baloochi, the General Secretary of the Higher Education Council briefed the delegation about the importance of academic and administrative compliance requirements and the types of disciplines needed in Bahrain. On the last day of their visit, both institutions teams met with H.E. Mr. Khalid Amro Al Rumaihi, Chief Executive, Bahrain Economic Development Board. Mr. Khalid showed his full support for the cooperation initiatives stating that "education is a key component in a services based economy such as the Kingdom of Bahrain".

H.E. Ambassador William Roebuck, US Ambassador to the Kingdom of Bahrain also met with the delegation and welcomed the progress of the cooperation translating the commitment to Higher Education of both countries. At the end of the visit, both leadership teams agreed upon a roadmap for the next five years.

RUW Welcomes New Board of Trustees Member

RUW first Board of Trustees meeting was held on October 26, 2016. The Chairman, Mr. Fahad Al Zamil, welcomed all Board members of AY 2016-17 and also extended his hearty welcome to Dr. Gordon Gee, President West Virginia University, as a new member of RUW Board of Trustees. RUW Board of Trustees comprises of 11 esteemed Board members. They provide their valuable insight on the strategic planning, university academic matters, policies, budget, recruitment and overall development of the university. During the first meeting of the academic year 16-17, the members discussed important academic issues including offering new programmes, HEC compliance, Accreditation updates, Quality Assurance issues, Strategic Plan AY 2016-2021, Annual report AY 2015-16 and ongoing collaboration efforts and progress. During the meeting the Board invited Mr. Thomas V. Flaherty, Chairman of Board of Governors, West Virginia University and other WVU delegates visiting RUW to the mentioned meeting.

A brief synopsis of long and distinguished careers of Dr. Gee is as follows:
Dr. Gordon Gee is the longest serving President of United States of America and he has worked in many reputable universities like The Ohio State University, University of Colorado, Brown University to name a few. Currently Dr. Gee is serving as a President of West Virginia University since year 2013. He has received many scholastic honors and awards and has numerous publications (journals and books) in the field of Law and Higher Education.

RUW Recognizes Ms. Sara Jassim Abdulla, who was awarded the first prize in the Supreme Council for Women Students' Research Competition on "Women and Law"

On behalf of the management and staff of RUW, the President expressed appreciation to Ms. Sara Jassim Abdulla and Dr. Louna Farhat, from the College of Law, who were awarded the first prize in the Supreme Council for Women Students' Research Competition on "Women and Law". A recognition program was organized during RUW Senate Meeting No. 91 held on November 03, 2016, to recognize Ms. Sara Jassim Abdulla. RUW president, Professor Mazin Jumaah, presented trophies and certificates of appreciation to Ms. Sara Jassim Abdulla and Dr. Louna Farhat. Ms. Sara Jassim's research, supervised by Dr. Louna Farhat was on the topic: " Bahrain legislation supporting women: a study monitoring the gaps and ways of improvement."

In support of Breast Cancer Awareness Month - "Think Pink" drive success at Royal University for Women

In honor of Breast Cancer Awareness Month, Royal University for Women (RUW) held a "Think Pink" drive throughout of month of October with various activities and events organized by the Office of Student Affairs at the university and the RUW Student Council. The month of events kicked off in the first week of October with an art work competition where students submitted artwork in support of the drive on different media such as canvases, t-shirts and mugs. A bake sale was then held along with a charity breakfast and a pink ribbon sale with all the proceeds donated to the cause. On October 18th the "Think Pink" drive culminated in a lecture by renowned consultant general breast oncologist surgeon Dr. Sara Al Reefy the two hour long lecture attended by students and academics alike focused on early detection and extensive information on raising awareness and measures to be undertaken. A workshop as well as a yoga session and a "Pink Fashion Show" followed the lecture. Reflecting on the events and efforts of the students and RUW members alike , Prof. Mazin Jumaah, President of Royal University for Women, reiterated the importance of raising awareness about Breast Cancer, commending the role played by the Student Council members in promoting the event , Prof. Mazin stated " We encourage the students to take an active role in drives and campaigns that raise awareness and benefit society , I am proud of the students as they constantly think of creative and innovative ways to raise awareness and engage their fellow students."

His Highness Sheikh Khalid bin Hamad Al Khalifa Award for outstanding graduation projects

On October 17, Dr. Mahmoud Jazzar, Dean of College of Information Technology represented Royal University for Women attending the coordination meeting with the organizing committee of his Highness Sheikh Khalid bin Hamad Al Khalifa award for outstanding graduation projects, scheduled to take place in December 2016. The meeting was held at the University of Bahrain to show the importance of the competition, evaluation criteria and submission date of projects. RUW and other universities are competing to win the first places in his Highness Sheikh Khalid bin Hamad Al Khalifa award for outstanding graduation projects, the second version of his award for graduation projects excellence opened to all disciplines of the colleges of Engineering and Information Technology.

Alumna of the Month

Background Information

Name: Ms. Basma Yusuf Mohammed Abdulghaffar Alalawi

Graduation Year: 2014

Professional Occupation:

Government Affairs Coordinator, VIVA Bahrain

Involvement at RUW:

- Graduated with High Distinction from the College of Business & Financial Sciences with a Bachelor's degree in Human Resources.
- Dean's list student for 4 years.
- Participated at CIMA International Competition by Barclays for Managerial Accounting.
- Attended conference for Information Centre for Women & Children (2012).
- Attended empowerment course on behalf of RUW (2013).

Her Words:

"It was an honor to graduate from Royal University for Women with a Bachelor's degree in Human Resources. Graduating from an esteemed university that emphasizes on empowering women to be the leaders of our generation. With the background and knowledge provided at RUW, innovation, empowerment, and ambition steered us through a pathway that allowed us to explore and achieve our dreams. As for the memories and friendship gained, we will always cherish them. We constantly hear people say "the journey has ended" I say my journey began the day I graduated. Our second home, RUW, guides and provides us the independence and strength to allow us to explore new directions. I began my journey in a telecom industry, where it was a new challenging opportunity that allowed me to apply the knowledge, resources and capabilities provided from RUW to my career. As I came from an HR background, I learned to practice new jobs and hence develop myself. Finally, RUW provided me and my fellow graduates with the resources and skills to excel as women in the industry and specialization we work for. We learnt to seek the opportunities provided and become leaders of our generation."

Achievements:

- Associate member- Chartered Institute of Personnel & Development Certificate (CIPD) level 3, BIBF 2016.
- Award for team achievement for Number Recycling Project in VIVA (2015).
- Graduated with distinction from Royal University for Women with Bachelor's degree in Human resources.
- Dean's List Award for 4 years.
- Ministry of Education Scholarship for BSc (2010).
- Graduated with distinction from Naseem International School. Honor Roll student.

RUW Library Organizes Workshops on Library Resources

During the month of October, library took three sessions with CAD, CBFS and Masters students providing information on library facilities, services and resources. Showing them the links to access library holdings using different links and the available loan facilities. They were also introduced to the databases available and the information available therein. Four workshops were done (2 each on ProQuest and Ebrary) with CAD and LAW students, introducing them with search strategies and making pinpointed searches. Further, the provision of saving searches in 'My Research' and 'Book shelf' along with use of 'highlighters' and inserting 'notes' was also shown. One 'Turnitin' training workshop was done with FDN students of CAD to familiarize them with process of submitting assignments.

Royal University for Women strengthens ties with schools in KSA Eastern province

Royal University for Women in the Kingdom of Bahrain initiated a drive to increase its cooperation with schools and educational institutions in the eastern province of Saudi Arabia as part of its outreach and marketing program. On October 26th 2016, Royal University for Women representatives visited Al Salam School in the Khobar area of the kingdom and presented to the school officials, administration and students. The school visit provided a platform for the Royal University for Women to introduce its programs, facilities and educational opportunities to girls in the Eastern Province. Royal University for Women were welcomed at the Al Salam Schools the principal Ms. Sana Abalkhail who thanked the university for accepting the invitation to visit the school as it provides an ideal platform for their students to learn about the opportunities available to them at the neighboring Kingdom of Bahrain. Officials from the university presented to the students prior to answering questions and addressing all the issues concerning academic and social life in the university. The Royal University for Women team comprised of Director of Student Affairs Ms. Doris Martin, Public Relations Officer Duwa Al Khalifa, Admissions Officer Ms. Luwla Al Muraikhi, Finance Officer Ms. Zaina Al Bassam as well as current RUW Students Ms. Johara Al Zamil and Ms. Bshayer Al Bassam.

CAD Programmes Review by the National Authority for Qualifications and Quality Assurance for Education & Training

Commencing on October 31, QAAU hosted the reviewers from National Authority for Qualifications and Quality Assurance for Education & Training (QQA) who visited RUW for a review of four programmes within the College of Art and Design; Fashion Design, Graphic Design, Interior Design and Design Management. The three-day visit was conducted by a panel of eight international members in addition to Review Directors and representatives from the QQA. In addition to the review of the programmes and their quality processes, the panel members had meetings with internal and external stakeholders including the Advisory Committee members, alumnae, students, employers and external examiners/verifiers. The visit was wrapped up with a positive verbal feedback, and the final official feedback will later be submitted to the university for factual accuracy.

CAD Field Trip to Seef Mall

On October 17, CAD organized a field trip to Seef Mall as part of a research project to design a Lobby in a Mall. Ms. Furat, architect at Seef Mall, provided an AutoCAD drawing of the floor plan of Seef mall to be considered as a floor plan for this class project. The trip was to verify measurements, and information relevant for this project. The students asked to take some pictures to assist them in their design sketching. Concepts and design requirements conducted with the architect and the manager of the mall, which is reflected somehow on students understanding about the role of designers in creating a public space, taking in consideration lighting, flooring information desk and the space itself. At the end the manger and the architect was invited to take part at the final presentation as juries.

CAD Field Trip to Roche bobois Interior Design Firm

On October 9, CAD organized a field trip to Roche bobois Interior Design Firm. Roche bobois is a French company dating to 1950. They create exclusive handmade furniture based on the design by world-known designers for example by Jean Paul Gautier, Sonia Rykiel, and Missoni as their designers. The showroom is in Seef and The Manager is Ms Kanwal. She had prepared presentation and a tour of the showroom with impressive pieces of furniture and artworks. The presentation was about the history of the company and she introduced many pieces with environmental sustainability features, something that Roche bobois incorporate in the making of their furniture and artwork. All students received a book on the latest collection of Roche Bobois furniture. Students were offered to get in touch with Ms Kanwal if they need more information for future projects.

CAD Field Trip to Bahrain Art Center

On October 23, a field trip with 14 students of Master of Design Management program was organized to visit an exhibition titled "Parallels" at Bahrain Art Center, about things that do not meet. Under the theme of "parallels never cross over, they never meet" in geometry, the show questions if lines must meet to create a perspective reflecting the concept of "if people must be the same to create a society." Three young Bahraini artists, an architect, a musician and a scenographer created five different installations that reflect a variety of social aspects from their point of view. After meeting one of the artists as a guest lecturer followed by a discussion where all students participated effectively, each student has been asked to produce a written critical essay of two pages about the concept of each work and the theme of the whole exhibition considering the materials used to create this work, supported by images.

CGS Field Trip to Bahraini National Museum

On October 19, Dr. Shaheen and Ms. Bridget facilitated a field trip for the History of Bahrain students. They visited the Bahraini National Museum. Students received an instructive and eclectic tour of the museum via museum staff and Dr. Shaheen himself, exploring exhibits on the earliest history of Bahrain with the Dilmun civilization, traditional Bahraini life, and modern 20th century music. Students paid particular attention to the Dilmun exhibit to write a report on an interesting finding for their class.

Presentation on "Academic Integrity"

On October 26, Ms. Bridget Hansen, Fulbright Scholar at the CGS, RUW, delivered a highly informative presentation on the topic 'Academic Integrity'. Students were educated on the nature of this topic and why it is important to respect this at all times during their academic career. They were shown a video on how to avoid plagiarism and given a questionnaire to check their understanding of the subject.

German Expert Prof. Stephan Kull in a talk on Consumer Target Groups

On October 20, as part of the CSR Class (BUS 433), Prof Dr. Stephan Kull, the German expert in CSR and Stakeholder Management held a talk over Skype, discussing the changes and current situation of the consumer target groups in West-Europe. One focus was on LOHA's (Lifestyle of Health and Sustainability). Another focus was on the role of regionality as a sustainable market element. This was a good contribution to the class, as the students could get an expert view on sustainable factors in the German market and a discussion developed, how such developments are different in the GCC area and why they are different.

Guest Lecture – CBFS students cued in on Marketing Tactics and Consumer Research

Dr. Matthias Bode, Royal University for Women Associate Professor, who also has over 20 years of experiences in practical and academic consumer research, was a guest lecturer in class BUS205 on October 20. In this marketing class, Dr. Matthias was presenting an overview on the discipline of consumer research, covering especially psychological but also sociological and cultural consumer research and related the research to practical Marketing applications. Areas that were covered included: affective, cognitive research, individual and group related research, as well as research techniques like focus groups and eye tracking.

Engaging Discussion on Oil Prices and the GCC Economies

On October 25, Mr. Osama Mohammed Moeen, a regional and international capital markets expert, discussed the economic background role of oil prices for the economic development in several of the GCC economies. Mr. Moeen has 29 year experience in this field and is engaged in several Global Investment houses and is also involved in major IPO's and new listings in Bahrain Bourse. The students were engaged and enjoyed this opportunity to get deep insight information about one of the most important topics for the economic and social development of the region in the past, present and future. The session ended with a discussion and question and answer session between Mr. Osama Moeen and the students.

Personal Development Workshop: Build Your Dream Life with Top 10 Success Habits

On October 25, Office of Student Affairs and Dr. Nehal Elnagar organized Personal Development workshop "BUILD YOUR DREAM LIFE WITH TOP 10 SUCCESS HABITS" by Ms. Huma Ahmed Life Coach (CLC | CSFC | CTC), Motivational Speaker. The workshop elaborated on how Success is not an overnight phenomenon and that it is built step by step based on a life of disciplined habits. The students learnt the important topics about Gaining absolute clarity on what separates the Successful from the Unsuccessful; Learning the Top 10 Habits of Successful People and how to add them to one's life immediately to build a successful life and motivating oneself to success with real life examples.

First Alumnae Social Night at RUW

On October 27, OSA in collaboration with IKICK held a social event at RUW. Over 200 high school Students, University Students and RUW Alumni attended the event. It was organised by Muneera Aldoseri, Ikick event Management owner and alumnae.

InJaz Company Project

On October 23, The InJaz Bahrain Company program with the collaboration with RUW launched the startup entrepreneurship under the supervision of the Community Education Committee member, Dr. Nehal Elnaggar. 15 students registered in this program. The objective was to enhance and to enable the student skills: Innovative and critical thinking, brainstorming, business operation, consultation, leadership, team work, and presentation.

Consumer Protection Workshop by Ministry of Industry and Commerce

On October 23, Community Education Committee members, Dr. Humam Elagha and Mrs. Doris Martin, in collaboration with Ministry of Industry and Commerce organized the 'Consumer Protection' workshop. The Discussion covered the following: Consumer Rights, Supplier's Obligations, Rules of Competition and Monopoly and Manifestations of Breach of their Rules. The information disseminated during the workshop was beneficial for the students.

Community Education Committee Members attend UN Day Celebration

On October 25, Community Education Committee members: Mrs. Doris Martin, CEC Chair, Director of Student Affairs and Bahrain Universities Model United Nations founder and director, Dr. Mitra Hedman, Dr. Nehal Elnaggar attended the UN day celebration in the Diplomat Radisson Hotel. There were approximately 500 attendees at the reception. The CEC members met Diplomats, Government officials, UN officials, Educators, Journalists and Local business people. The purpose of attending this event is to connect and to network with the local and international community and to promote RUW.

College of Law hosts the third session of the LLOC Lecture series on "Women and Law"

On October 18, The College has proudly hosted the third session of the LLOC Lecture series on "Women and Law" with Ms. Fatema Abdul-Aziz Alnayem, Counselor at LLOC who gave a lecture about "Child Law and treaty". Dr. Pasquale welcomed the speaker and introduced her to the students, and gave a brief outline about the lecture. The event has been attended by around 26 law students. The session has ended with some questions and discussion between the students and Ms. Fatema.

College of Law Alumnae Meeting

On October 25, Dean of College of Law welcomed the first batch of the College of Law graduates of AY 2015/2016. Nine out of 13 graduates attended. Two of them were working abroad. The meeting had the purpose to track alumnae, and to provide students with some career guidance and update of the most recent job posting related to the field.

What R U saying?

ماذا يعني لي وطني

وطني ماذا يعني لي ، وهو السؤال الذي نُسأل عنه دائماً منذ كنا في المرحلة الابتدائية ، والإجابة دائماً تكون: وطني هو المكان الذي أعيش فيه، وهو المكان الذي فيه مدرستي وأصدقائي. ولكن الحقيقة هي ، الوطن ليس مجرد مكان حيث أعيش ، الوطن هو أكثر من ذلك، فهو المكان الذي أشعر الأثر أماما في. نعم، الوطن هو المكان الذي يتواجد فيه أصدقائي و اجتي، لكنه شيء أكثر من هذا ، فالوطن هو المكان الذي افتخر به. هو الحب والانتماء وهو ليس فقط رقعة جغرافية انتمي اليها بل هو كالأثر الحوية التي تعطف على ابناءها و تستضيف الكل الى بيتها. الوطن هو المكان الذي تعيش فيه بأمان وتكرامة ويحمي حقوقك ويحفظ حريتك دون أي قلق أو خوف .. الوطن هو الرابط بين الإنسان والأرض التي تعيش عليها. البحرين بالنسبة لي هي الحرية والحب والجمال والصدقة. البحرين تبدل كل ما لديها من طاقات مادية ومعنوية من أجل راحتنا وحررتنا. البحرين هي المكان الذي ترعرت فيه و لا مكان آخر يضايفها جمالاً و كمالاً لا أظن باني سوف أشعر بأمان أو بالانتماء في بلد آخر، فالبحرين هي وطني.

Ms. Eman Mahmood Alsarraf
College of Law

Ms. Eman Mahmood Alsarraf
College of Law
eman2356@ruw.edu.bh

MABROOK!!

AWARDS

College of Law student Ms. Sara Jassim Abdulla won the 1st Prize of the Supreme Council for Women Research Award on the theme "Women and Law". Ms. Sara has received the award at the Supreme Council for Women Conference on "Women and Law" held on November 01, 2016, at the presence of H.H. Shaikha Sabeeka bint Ebrahim Al Khalifa.

RESEARCH FORUM PRESENTATIONS

- On October 04, Dr. Mona Suri, Academic Vice President, presented two topics: "Implementation of the Internship Policy" and "Implementation of the External Examining and External Verification Policy".
- On October 18, Dr. Matthias Bode, Associate Professor, College of Business & Financial Sciences, presented a topic on "Ludic Brand Engagement".
- On October 18, Dr. Nehal Elnaggar, Assistant Professor, College of Business & Financial Sciences, presented a topic on "E-Government".

NEW JOINERS

Ms. Rakiya Al Dossari, Admission Officer.