Welcome Note from the Dean of the College of Information Technology

Mahmoud Jazzar, PhD

As the Dean of the College of Information Technology, I am honored to welcome you to the Royal University for Women (RUW). RUW is a well-balanced curriculum that focuses on the latest trends of Information Technologies to positively contribute to create productive and an enjoyable teaching and learning experience.

The students have been continuously encouraged to develop critical understanding of the objective by empowering our students to meet the challenges of the modern workplace, and the college principal objective is to foster women's societies and work together in unison to achieve common goals. The inaugural session continued with a keynote address by Dr. Joyce McConnel, Provost at West Virginia University, USA as well as a further keynote address from Her Excellency Hala Ramzi Fayz, Head of Women and Child Rights at the Shura Council.

The conference was organized and sponsored by RUW with the support of NAMA Foundation, Bahrain Women's National Commission, Gulf News, and Bahrain National Museum. RUW Conference on Women and Society Keynote Speakers included the Padma Shree Veena Parikh, a Professor and Director of the Women's Institute at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, USA, and Rihana bint Mohammed Al Khalifa, Chairperson of the Board of Directors of the Bahrain National Museum. Under the patronage of Her Royal Highness Princess Sabeeka bint Ibrahim Al Khalifa, Wife of the King of Bahrain, President of the Supreme Council for Women, for her patronage of the conference and her constant support and strides undertaken for women in the Kingdom of Bahrain as well as internationally. The speech was followed by the keynote address from Her Royal Highness Princess Sabeeka bint Ibrahim Al Khalifa, Wife of the King of Bahrain, President of the Supreme Council for Women for Women.

On behalf of the College of IT, I would like to welcome you to the College of IT at Royal University for Women. The college principal objective is to foster women's societies and work together in unison to achieve common goals. The inaugural session continued with a keynote address by Dr. Joyce McConnel, Provost at West Virginia University, USA as well as a further keynote address from Her Excellency Hala Ramzi Fayz, Head of Women and Child Rights at the Shura Council.

On Day 1 of the conference, the inauguration of the Poster Session and Exhibition was followed by the presentations and speeches by the Keynote Speakers encompassing topics on "Women in Culture and Society". The Keynote Speakers were Padma Shree Veena Parikh, a Professor and Director of the Women's Institute at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, USA, and Rihana bint Mohammed Al Khalifa, Chairperson of the Board of Directors of the Bahrain National Museum. Under the patronage of Her Royal Highness Princess Sabeeka bint Ibrahim Al Khalifa, Wife of the King of Bahrain, President of the Supreme Council for Women, for her patronage of the conference and her constant support and strides undertaken for women in the Kingdom of Bahrain as well as internationally. The speech was followed by the keynote address from Her Royal Highness Princess Sabeeka bint Ibrahim Al Khalifa, Wife of the King of Bahrain, President of the Supreme Council for Women for Women.

The conference encompassing four parallel sessions conducted during Day II of the conference on April 20th including 'Women in Business and Leadership', 'Women, Innovation and Technology' and 'Women in Business and Leadership'. On Day 1 of the conference, the inauguration of the Poster Session and Exhibition was followed by the presentations and speeches by the Keynote Speakers encompassing topics on "Women in Culture and Society". The Keynote Speakers were Padma Shree Veena Parikh, a Professor and Director of the Women's Institute at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, USA, and Rihana bint Mohammed Al Khalifa, Chairperson of the Board of Directors of the Bahrain National Museum. Under the patronage of Her Royal Highness Princess Sabeeka bint Ibrahim Al Khalifa, Wife of the King of Bahrain, President of the Supreme Council for Women, for her patronage of the conference and her constant support and strides undertaken for women in the Kingdom of Bahrain as well as internationally.
Dr. Ramprakash Bharateesh Kasi, Acting Head of Business Department, for Women’s and Gender Studies, West Virginia University.

Faculty Of The Month

Dr. Kasi has to his credit a number of publications in refereed journals. He has also presented at several international conferences on various topics related to management and business. He is a member of the advisory board of the Journal of Business and Management in the Pharmaceutical industry. He is a recipient of the Confederation of Indian Industry’s award for excellence in education.

Alumna of the Month

Ms. Noora Khalid Albenfalah, Fashion Design student, wins “Oh My Dress Alicant” Competition

The bestselling author of fourteen books teaches RUW students argumentative and creative writing.

RESEARCH FORUM PRESENTATIONS

Ms. Najeebh Alsubah

While in the United Kingdom, Dr. Janon Kadhim, Dean of College of Art & Design, visited several institutions including the University of London and visits to a number of educational institutions.

Involvement at RUW:

Graduation Year:
2014

What R U saying?

What R U saying?

What R U saying?

What R U saying?